THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU TRAVEL TO AN EMBARGOED REGION

REQUIREMENTS

Obtain written approval from Export Control by completing and submitting an OVPR Pre-Travel Application for Embargoed Country Travel.

OVPR Export Control requires that Twenty-one (21) days before organizing any University travel to any Embargoed Region, all UConn faculty, students, staff, and administrators, regardless of citizenship or immigration status, must obtain written approval from Export Control by completing and submitting an OVPR Pre-Travel Application for Embargoed Country Travel.

This Application must be completed and submitted by each traveler for each University trip to an Embargoed Region, regardless of whether OVPR approval was granted for previous travel by the same individual to the same Embargoed Region or whether another individual has already received approval for the trip.

Failure to obtain prior written approval from the OVPR’s Export Control Officer for travel to Embargoed Regions is a violation of University policy that may result in disciplinary action by the university up to and including dismissal or expulsion. It may also result in criminal or civil penalties for travelers or the University.

WHERE SHOULD YOU START?

Contact the Office of the Vice President for Research (OVPR) Export Control Officer to ensure that your proposed travel to these regions is consistent with U.S. law, which generally prohibits all transactions with parties located in these regions, unless a particular exception applies.

OVPR must also confirm that any information you plan to present or discuss, and any items you plan to take with you, are authorized for export to those regions.
