The Key to Strong Password Security

As members of the UConn Health community, we each have a professional obligation to protect access to our systems and data, and to safeguard our log-in credentials.

This brief video provides considerations to protect the sensitive and confidential information you may have access to and build strong password security habits.

Click the "Watch Now" button below to check out this helpful 2 minute video.

WATCH NOW

Also, click below to access the accompanying resource document.

RESOURCES