Each year, employees are required to complete the University’s annual compliance training. This mandatory training is offered as part of the University’s commitment to a culture of integrity and ethical conduct, and provides us with a mechanism for staying current on important and relevant laws, regulations, policies, and resources.

Here is what you need to know about this year’s training.

About the Training

Learn about the elements of the University’s compliance program and expectations, as well as how you can meet your compliance responsibilities. In particular, this year’s training will cover:

- The University Code of Conduct and the importance of individual behaviors
- The University Guide to the State Code of Ethics
- Key reminders related to important University policies and resources

In general, this training will take approximately 45 minutes to complete.

When and Where

To provide you with an engaging and accessible learning experience, live training sessions, as well as a fully online option will be offered.

Starting Monday, February 17, 2020 you can register for either an in-person session or the online training via: [https://uconn-storrs.sabacloud.com/Saba/Web_spf/NA1P RD0098/common/ledetail/COMPTRAIN2020](https://uconn-storrs.sabacloud.com/Saba/Web_spf/NA1P RD0098/common/ledetail/COMPTRAIN2020)

The Deadline to complete this year’s compliance training is May 15, 2020.

More Information

Visit compliance.uconn.edu/training to learn more about this year's training or contact the:

Office of University Compliance

at

(860) 486-2530

or

compliance.training@uconn.edu

Please Note: Special Payroll employees are not required to complete the training unless Department Heads require it.