As a part of UConn’s commitment to providing welcoming and inclusive learning and workplace environments, UConn’s Religious Accommodation Policy was developed to set forth the process by which requests for religious accommodations from faculty, staff, graduate assistants, and students on all UConn Campuses will be addressed.

In keeping with this commitment, the University will make good faith efforts to provide reasonable religious accommodations to faculty, staff and students whose sincerely held religious practices or beliefs conflict with a University policy, procedure, or other academic or employment requirement, unless such an accommodation would create an undue hardship.

LEARN MORE

Check out this informational resource for an overview of UConn’s Religious Accommodation Policy, including definitions, examples, and processes.

Now that you’ve engaged with these resources, be sure to take our “test your knowledge” challenge by clicking below.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

CLICK HERE TO GET STARTED